Maintaining Community

I believe that it is the church's job to maintain community even while many of its members are in the world involved in many things. I believe it is the church's job, but also one of its greatest challenges.

I know what God has promised: "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging."

"Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth."
(Psalm 46, excerpts, NIV)

By this I know that no matter where I go, God is with me. No matter my circumstances, no matter how I am dressed, from bath robe to suit and tie, I can pause and speak with God, be with God. The important thing is that I pause, be still, and know God.

I will often pause and be still before God throughout the course of my day. Before worship on Sundays, after worship on Sundays, before visiting a person in the hospital, asking God to be with me in the visit, the conversation, in the hope that I may be of comfort and strength to the person I am visiting on behalf of the spiritual community that has called me.

You can pause, before getting into your car to drive to work, before and after waking your children, even while dressing them for the day, giving yourself just a moment to ask God to be strength for them, to be your love for them, to help you speak the right words, to make the right decisions on their behalf. The "roar and foam" and the "quake" of your day can come at any moment and God is ready to be there with you and for you as you struggle to maintain a firm footing in the midst of it.

I also know that Jesus has called us to be a community together, to be present for each other as God is present for us. Therefore, I know that we have promised to be present to each other, as the church. We have promised to be "a refuge and strength" to each other, when there is quaking and shaking.

I am very proud when I see members of our church community taking it upon themselves to be present to people in their time of difficulty, to be present in expressions of appreciation, to be present through celebrations of accomplishment. I am proud that our church community seeks and acts to give strength and support to others all around the world, outside of the enclave of our immediate community.

Summer Schedule of Services Begins

In the Chapel

June 24, 2012 and July 1, 2012

9:00 A.M. Morning Worship

Sermon by the Rev. Dr. Dennis C. Bailey
Brief, informal service followed by punch and fellowship.

The challenge for us is to know. The challenge is to find the time and ways to be aware of the needs of God's people. I know that the members of our spiritual community desire to be of strength and help to others, to give beyond themselves, to live their lives for the benefit of others. I know that we do not want to find ourselves saying, "If only I had known."

- We know through our informal networks.
- We know through our church's weekly service of worship.
- We know through our church's newsletters.
- We know when we pause, be still, and ask God to lead and direct us.
- We know when we pause, come together as community, refusing distractions and denials.

I welcome your willingness to know and to serve as an agent of God's community. You can be an agent of prayer, a kindly visitor, an agent of service through sharing your availability for rides, and errands.

Presently, we have a family of 5 in Lynnfield who needs our assistance. The mother has a serious illness and is limited in what she can do to take care of their three children on a daily basis. It is important that the father go to work every day and he is very limited in the amount of time he can take off. The children are ages: 4, 7, and 13 (two boys and a daughter).

They need volunteers who can watch the younger children while the mother rests, fix a snack, maybe help with preparing dinner on occasion, occasional rides to school, summer camp, classes, appointments, etc. If you can be an agent of our caring community of faith, please let me or Denise Weaver know (dweav57@verizon.net; or call 781-334-3360) and we can put you in contact with the family.

Please keep the ministry of Centre Church in your prayers. Please keep the staff in your prayers as we seek to be faithful to what we have pledged to do on your behalf. Please attend worship as you are able so as to strengthen our ties. Please be generous in your giving in support of our work together. And, also, consider helping us maintain our precious church property through special gifts. (We need a new roof and painting of the exterior, among other significant improvements.)

I love the work of Ministry and the wonderful people I am privileged to serve with at Centre Church and in the greater Lynnfield Community. I have great colleagues via the Lynnfield Clergy Association. I am proud to serve as a volunteer in the role of Chaplain with the Lynnfield Fire Department. And, I am very proud of the many ways that you volunteer throughout the greater Lynnfield Community, as well as in and through the church.

Have a blessed summer!

Yours in Christ, Dennis
