Restore (ri-stawr, -stohr)

Dear Centre Church friends,

It is happening. Our building restoration project is coming along at a good pace now and I believe that the proverbial "light at the end of the tunnel" is visible. As I type this, the flooring professionals are beginning to lay the new carpet in the sanctuary. There is much to celebrate, and we surely will! As we move through March and the season of Lent toward Holy Week and Easter, there will be many details to sort as we determine when and how we can gather again in our sanctuary for worship. And so, as we approach the one-year anniversary of closing the building, I thought it was wise to pause here and consider exactly what we're about in the act of restoration.

I went to the dictionary (dictionary.com) to look up "restore" and found two definitions that I want to hone-in on. The first is what I suppose we might be tempted to think we're up to, and a second that I believe is clarifying for us. "Restore: to bring back to a former, original, or normal condition, as a building, statue, or painting." It is very tempting to think of restoration as an act of returning something to its former glory, and certainly there are times, places, and objects that want for this loving care. I don't believe that is actually what we are about in restoring our building. Instead, I believe this second definition is closer to what we're called to be about as Christ's Church that happens to gather at 5 Summer Street. "Restore:

to bring back to a state of health, soundness, or vigor." This definition embraces the future and tells the truth that, in God's creation, there is no such thing as "normal" and wanting to return to what was is a sure and certain way to deny what is. As disciples of Christ, we are called always to be flexible and hopeful, discerning together how we can share the good news of God's love in Christ with each other and with the world. Our building restoration is a beautiful metaphor for the process of discernment we must engage in. From the rafters to the basement, from worship to mission, we have this amazing opportunity to seek a state of health, soundness, and vigor with regards to how we live in the way of Christ. Completing the restoration of our building is the beginning of this process of discernment. I am so excited for what's possible! Spring is surely coming, and a new season of ministry is also surely coming.

Together in Christ,

Rev. Nancy

Dear friends of Centre Church,

Thank you so much for your thoughts and prayers on the passing of my sister Jean Hjorth Friedman from Covid-19.

We especially appreciate the flowers from the Diaconate, cards from Centre Church members, and the compassionate words and phone calls from Rev. Nancy.

Jean was only in the hospital for four days. Her passing was very quick and very shocking. Please wear a mask or two. Please be safe and be well.

The following items are most needed: Toothbrushes/toothpaste, Deodorant, Soap and Bodywash, Shampoo/Conditioner, Body Lotion, Razors/Shaving Cream, Feminine Hygiene Products, New Socks and Underwear (all sizes), New reusable face masks (kids and adults). Citizen’s Inn also maintains an Amazon Wish List of their needs at <http://bit.ly/citizensinn>.

Heifer Coin Drive and Raffle Results

The Ministry teams of Mission and Outreach and Faith Formation hosted a drive-thru coin collection to benefit Heifer International. We filled the Heifer goat tube with quarters two times over! C.C. and Sam Ragalevsky were the lucky two who filled it the first time. Sam rang the “Goat Tube is full” bell and got to dump those quarters into our collection bucket. Two full tubes ($120 each) plus other coin donations totaled $448! This will be matched by our Missions budget when we make our annual donation to Heifer International this Spring. As part of this event, a beautiful plush water buffalo donated by Daniel Miller and dressed for Valentine’s Day was raffled off. The winner was... C.C. Ragalevsky! C.C. says she plans to share it with Sam who was heard to say when filling out his raffle ticket “our family’s been wanting a water buffalo”. Everyone who donated coins received handmade chocolate truffle hearts, lovingly made and wrapped by Barbara Langill, Denise Weaver and Alicia Dwyer.

April is Earth MONTH!

Earth Day is turning into Earth Month! Dating back to 1970, both Earth Month and Earth Day have become times when we focus our energies on our environment and the things that we can do to make it better. Stay tuned for environment-focused movie ideas and information on movie discussion groups coming up in April.

Matching donations

Outreach Ministries is using pledged “Missions” funds to match member donations to local organizations hard hit by the Covid-19 pandemic. You can double your impact by donating and submitting a copy of your donation receipt to the church office for matching. We have matched $6,162 since starting this program in April of 2020. As highlighted in the last Tower Notes issue about the Wakefield Food Pantry, the Greater Boston Food Bank (GBFB) provides many locals pantries with food at a 75% discount. Please read on and consider donating to the Greater Boston Food Bank this month.

Greater Boston Food Bank

The origin of the Greater Boston Food Bank was in 1974 when Kip Tiernan began distributing food to those in need out of her station wagon. She was inspired by her grandmother who opened her kitchen during the Great Depression and marked an "X" on her sidewalk which designated it as a safe place to get help. GBFB was officially incorporated in 1981. Today, it is the leading hunger relief agency in New England and one of the largest in the country. It currently distributes approximately 62 million pounds of food each year feeding more than 142,000 each month. Its state-of-the-art facility in South Boston honors its history with an "X" at the main entrance of its lobby. Donations can be made at www.gbfb.org.
